History of the Schoolboy Wrestling Tournament

Bud Lindholm "Father of Berks County Wrestling"

by Dick Horst

The first Schoolboy Wrestling Tournament, held in 1957, at C. E. Cole Elementary School in Muhlenberg Township, was the brainchild of Cornelius "Bud" Lindholm. Bud, who came to Berks County via Lehigh University, where he earned the "Outstanding Wrestling Award" after winning the 145 pound Eastern Intercollegiate Championship in 1945.

Bud envisioned this novice event as a starting point and a stepping stone for future participation in wrestling. At that time, Reading High was the only school in the county to sponsor a varsity wrestling program. Today, fifty some years later, there are sixteen local schools that field wrestling teams on a Varsity, JV, Junior High, and Elementary level. In addition there are numerous wrestling clubs and community organizations that involve kids at all levels. Literally thousands of people throughout the county have contributed to this success and all agree that the Schoolboy Wrestling Tournament was the impetus that got it all started.

Bud's vision has become a reality. For his efforts on behalf of Berks county wrestlers, coaches, officials, parents, and fans Bud will always be remembered as the "Father of Berks County Wrestling".
